Terms of Sale:

The booking will not be handled after the deadline date, 3rd May 2010. - We accept payment in euros only: cheque, credit card, cash or bank transfer. We do not take payment over the phone. We do not refund the tickets. In case of 'force majeure', you must send a claims letter within the 30 days after the race with official justificatory papers.

Collection or Sending of the Tickets:

If you choose to pick up your tickets, you will receive your allocation letter indicating time and place for collection. Tickets will be available beginning 2010 upon presentation of your letter at the ACO shop in the Musée des 24 Heures. During the race, our office will be transferred to the Centre de Exposition under the name "Accueil Général".

Should you choose to receive the tickets; tickets are sent upon payment of the postal charges. We send them only by registered mail (UPS). In case of return of the tickets due to delivery problem on your side, you will be charged an additional sending cost for a second dispatch.

I do not wish to receive any information regarding the "24 Heures du Mans" or concerning the advantages and services proposed by the ACO ☐
